

THE FACES

of Main Street

The Luray Downtown Initiative was formed to facilitate rehabbing the town through the Virginia Main Street program. This feature is an introduction to some of the folks that form the fabric of Luray's Downtown ...

WHO: Mike Sherfey, owner

WHAT: Allied Mortgage, LLC

WHERE: 230 W. Main St., Suite C (upstairs in the Yager Building)

HOW LONG: Since Jan. 1, 2005

DID YOU KNOW?: Allied Mortgage is a family business. Mike's mother, Pam Sherfey, well-known in Page County banking circles, manages the Luray office and originates mortgage loans. Kay Pierce, Mike's sister-in-law, is the receptionist and appraisal assistant. Mike, a mortgage broker and residential appraiser with nine years experience, also owns Allied Mortgage offices in Stephens City and Stuarts Draft. "We're proud that we also employee Eddie Boloix, another loan originator who specializes in loan processing for the Spanish speaking community."

WHAT'S SPECIAL ABOUT DOWNTOWN LURAY?

Downtown Luray is easily accessible and serves as the central location for our offices as well as the Shenandoah Valley. We treat our clients like neighbors and friends. Because we are in control, we go the extra mile to do whatever it takes to help our clients qualify for the mortgage they need. We enjoy being a part of the community with that 'hometown touch' and 'hometown feel.'
